

ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS must have completed their formal radiology training (MD or equivalent) and have held a faculty position in an academic institution for no less than 3 and no more than 10 years.

Please email your completed application as well as the required documentation listed below to CIRE@rsna.org. Signed documents may also be sent via email. Alternatively, application materials may be sent via mail to the address noted on page 2 to arrive by the July 1, 2017 application deadline.

1. A copy of your curriculum vitae.
2. A letter from your home institution that describes what institutional needs will be met by study in North America.
3. A letter from the national radiologic society of your country confirming current membership and/or attendance at its meeting in the past two years.
4. Proof of proficiency in English (a TOEFL or equivalent test score taken within the last two years). For applicants of countries where English is an official language, no TOEFL test is required, but the letter from your home institution must attest to your verbal fluency in English.
5. A documented list of academic productivity, research, and involvement in trainee education.
6. An additional letter of reference (optional).
