

Harrington Prize for Innovation in Medicine 2023 Nomination Guidelines

Deadline for Nominations: September 12, 2022 at 11:59 PM EDT

Full Nomination Overview

Below is the list of sections you will be asked to fill out in your online nomination. To access and submit your online nomination, please log in to HarringtonDiscovery.SmartSimple.com.

1. Nomination and Nominator Information

2. Nominee's Achievement

Include a description of the nominee's achievement notable for innovation, creativity and clinical application. (500 word maximum)

3. Support Materials

- Nominee's Biographical Sketch
Please follow the NIH format – or similar format – and include pending support, applications submitted or pending funded in Section D. If there is no pending support, state "Pending Support: None". (5-page maximum; uploaded as a PDF)
- Brief Bibliography
Please list up to ten best references. (Uploaded as a PDF)
- Letter from the Nominee Regarding Speaking Engagements
The nominee must write a letter confirming availability to lecture at the AAP-ASCI-APSA Joint Meeting on April 21 – 23, 2023, as well as the availability to attend and speak at the annual Harrington Discovery Institute Scientific Symposium on May 24 – 25, 2023 (Uploaded as a PDF)
- Letter of Support
Provide one letter of support from the dean, provost or president of the nominee's institution. (Uploaded as a PDF)